

PEOPLE

BORNHEIMER

Bornheimer Named to Mass. Board of Library Commissioners

Deborah Bornheimer of Upland Rd. has been named by Gov. Paul Cellucci to a five-year term on the Mass. Board of Library Commissioners. The nine-member commission administers state and federal grants to Massachusetts public libraries and sets standards and regulations for their operation.

Bornheimer served as project manager for the new Duxbury Free Library and is a former chairman of the Board of Library Trustees.